- Requests for refunds must be made in writing to Public Programs Enrolments.
- You will be charged a $50 administrative fee if you cancel your registration.

Transfers

- You may request to transfer from a course up to the commencement of a course.
- Requests for transfers must be made in writing to Public Programs Enrolments.
- You will be charged a $50 administrative fee if you transfer your course selection.

Absences: There are no refunds or transfers if you miss a class. The National Art School cannot accept responsibility for changes in your personal or work circumstances.

What do I bring? Art materials are not supplied unless stated in the course description. Once we confirm your course, we will send an information pack that includes a materials list of items to bring.

Course cancellation: Payment of fees does not guarantee enrolment in a course. The National Art School reserves the right to cancel or postpone any course due to under-enrolment. In this case, you will receive a full refund or credit transfer note. The National Art School reserves the right to amend any course, schedule, location or tutor listed in the brochure before or during the course.

Student misconduct: All participants are required to comply with the National Art School Student Code of Conduct. See Student Info at www.nas.edu.au

Occupational Health & Safety: The National Art School abides by Department of Education and Training policy on equity and access. Public Programs policy is available at NAS Customer Service. Students must comply with the health and safety regulations provided by each department.

Please note that on the registration form you are required to notify the National Art School of any existing medical condition or disability that may affect your participation in a course.

Privacy: The information supplied to the National Art School is required to manage your enrolment and participation. The National Art School will also use the information to notify you of future courses and events. No personal information will be disclosed outside the National Art School without your expressed consent, except where required by law.

Parking: Metered parking is available on Forbes St and Darlinghurst Rd. Parking on campus is strictly limited and at the discretion of NAS Security. If you have special parking needs please contact NAS Public Programs prior to the start of the course.
